The Cambria Gallery in Toronto Reopens after Stunning Renovation

Visitors can experience a multitude of trendsetting vignettes incorporating Cambria's innovative fabrication techniques

LE SUEUR, MN (Jan. 16, 2023) - Cambria, the industry leader of quartz surfaces, reopens its gallery in Toronto after an extensive renovation. Reopening during the concurrent industry show IDS Toronto, the reimagined gallery is located in the King Street East Design District at 91 Parliament Street.

Cambria Gallery - Toronto provides consumers and trade professionals alike with a stunning, inspirational showroom to collaborate and experience Cambria. The space was designed with an upscale boutique aesthetic that reflects the city's modernity. Visitors will be treated to a multitude of trendsetting vignettes incorporating Cambria and innovative fabrication techniques, including:

- A stately reception area with desk and credenza featuring Cambria's Inverness Frost™, accented with Inverness Cobalt™
- Two revamped kitchen installations, one with a full-height backsplash in Skara Brae™
- A full shower display with flooring and floating bench in Hermitage™ and Brittanicca Warm™
- A fireplace vignette with Montana Midnight Matte™ and Clovelly™
- Custom wine cellar featuring Notting Hill™

Full-size slabs and an expanded library of over one hundred samples of Cambria's newest and most popular designs are also on display, including the recently launched Alloy Collection. Cambria continues to add to its timeless aesthetic of beautiful, nature-inspired designs. All of Cambria's designs are maintenance free and sustainably produced within a secure supply chain.

"Cambria has been focused on steadily building our brand in Toronto for years," said Carol Olson, Chief Marketing Officer at Cambria. "To further reinforce our presence in the market, we have made a significant investment in revitalizing our signature Cambria Gallery, providing consumers and trade professionals alike with an unparalleled opportunity to experience our groundbreaking quartz offerings. It is a privilege to present this new face to Toronto and positively contribute to the rich fabric of this community."

"The King East Design District in Toronto is a world-class design destination, and I'm thrilled to reopen the Cambria gallery to meet the demands of this vibrant area," said Colette Vella, District Manager of Sales at Cambria. "The vast library of samples and inspiring vignette installations, featuring an array of eye-opening fabrication applications, will serve as an incredible resource for the builder and remodeler trades, interior designers, and end-users.”

Cambria has ten additional galleries across North America located in Minneapolis, Minn. (2); Rochester, Minn.; Mankato, Minn.; Plymouth, Minn.; Rochester, Minn. (2); Atlanta, Ga.; Palm Desert, Calif. (2); Toronto, Ontario. For more information on Cambria’s galleries, visit CambriaUSA.com/galleries.
